Incumbent councilmen announce they plan to seek new terms

Two incumbent councilmen, Ralph Doetsch, 52, and Homer Hyde, 48, announced this week that they will seek reelection to the City Council in the April 12 city election. There are two positions open on the council.

Tomorrow is the first day that candidates may obtain their filing papers at the city hall. The papers must be returned to City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan by Feb. 12.

Both Doetsch and Hyde said they intended to take out their papers tomorrow and "officially" file as soon as possible thereafter.

The two incumbents are the first candidates to make their intentions known, although other candidates are expected to be in the field before the filing date ends.

Doetsch was elected to the council for a four-year term in 1962 when he made Campbell history. He was elected on a write-in campaign and received the highest number of votes of any candidate in the race.

Hyde was appointed to the City Council in December when former Councilman Bob McElroy resigned because he was moving out of the city. Hyde, at the time of his appointment, was a member of the Planning Commission on which he had served for more than 10 years; longer than any other member in this city's history.

Coincidentally each of the incumbent councilmen have been a resident of the community for more than 40 years. Both received their schooling in the area. Doetsch attended Campbell Grammar School and was graduated from Los Gatos High School.

Doetsch is a well-known orchardist and also is an owner of considerable business property within the city. Doetsch and his father, who died last year, have been engaged in agricultural activities for more than 30 years. He is also a director on the local board of Sunsweet Growers.

Doetsch, who was born in Campbell, attended the local elementary schools and is a graduate of Campbell High. Three generations of the Doetsch family have been Campbell High graduates. Doetsch is also a graduate of Stanford University. He has been active in community affairs for many years, in addition to his services on the Planning Commission he has served as president of the Rotary Club and other civic groups.

Doetsch and his wife, Katherine, reside at 1580 Dell Ave., and have five children; Ralph, Jr., a college student; Frank, recently graduated from Campbell High now in college; Joseph, Phillip and Denise, all students at St. Lucy's School. Doetsch has long been active in the St. Lucy's parish where he is a member of the St. Lucy's Men's Club.

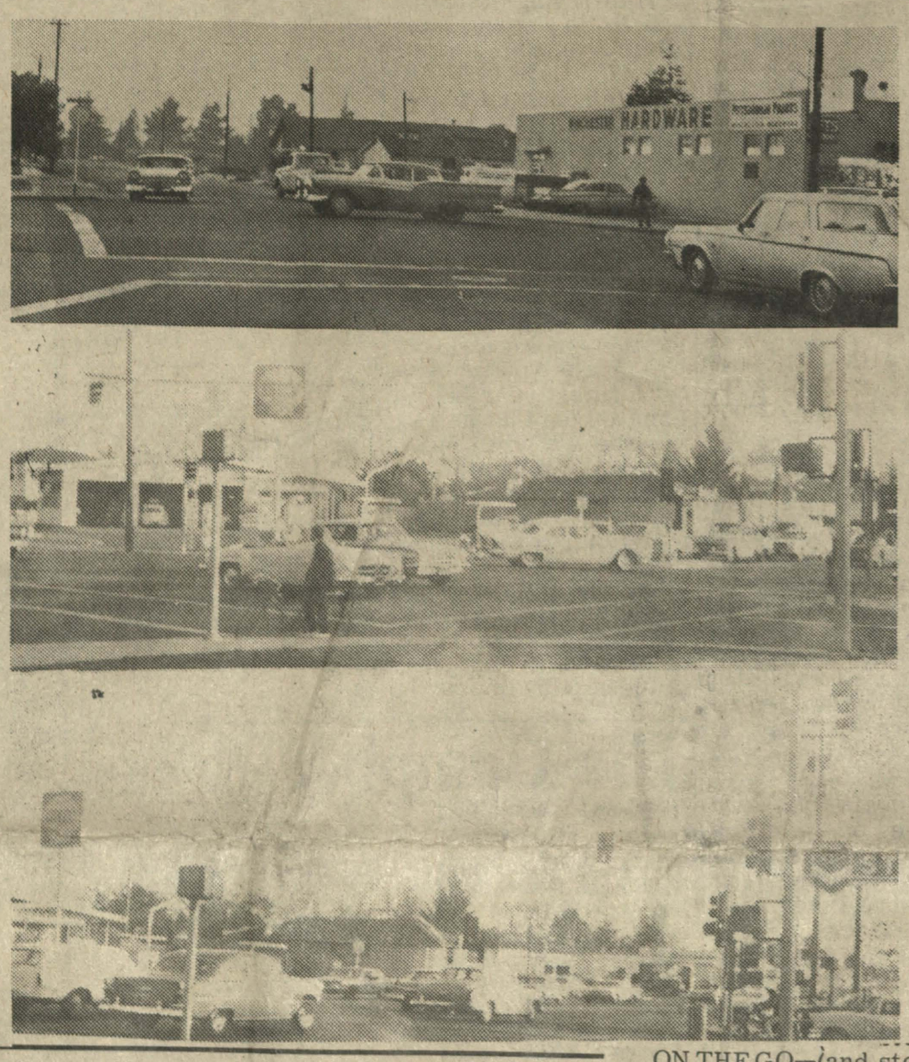
Hyde is a member of a pioneer family in Campbell. His father, Ralph, who died several years ago, was the founder of the Campbell Water Co., of which Homer has been general manager during the tremendous expansion program that the water firm has experienced in recent years.

Hyde, who was born in Campbell, attended the local elementary schools and is a graduate of Campbell High. Three generations of the Hyde family have been Campbell High graduates. Hyde is also a graduate of Stanford University. He has been active in community affairs for many years, in addition to his services on the Planning Commission he has served as president of the Rotary Club and other civic groups.

Hyde and his wife, Kathryn, who is also a Stanford graduate, reside at 116 Alice Ave. They have three children, Jerry, a graduate of UCLA; Mrs. Kathleen Israel of San Jose and Martha, a junior at Campbell High.

Synchronization on Winchester

City may budget $20,000 for signals



ON THE GO—(and stop)—Traffic signals and where to put 'em in town provided lots of flare-ups at the City Council meeting Monday night. Pictured above are three views of two of the intersections that were in the spotlight Monday. Top photo is of Winchester-Rincon and the others of Campbell-Winchester.

Installation of synchronized traffic signals on Winchester Blvd. from Campbell Ave. to Budd during the next fiscal year was given the green light by the City Council Monday night.

Funds for the project, estimated to cost $20,000, should be placed in next year's budget (after July 1), the council agreed.

But council members added an amber caution warning to their action.

Although going on record as "earmarking" $20,000 in next year's budget, the money first must be available and secondly, if other intersections in town proved more critical, they will get priority over the Winchester-Rincon intersection and other synchronized jobs planned on Winchester.

The action by the City Council came after a lengthy discussion which was participated in by interested residents and business people who have long advocated that a traffic light was needed at Winchester-Rincon. It was needed, they claimed, for traffic safety for pedestrians; for easier accessibility onto Winchester from the side streets; and to improve the access by customers to the various stores on Winchester.

Oltmann wins top award

Bill Oltmann, Campbell public accountant and treasurer of the C. of C., won the first "ambassador-of-the-year" award at the annual installation dinner-dance of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce last Thursday night at Villa Felice.

Almost 200 members and guests were present at the affair rated as the most successful in the history of the local C. of C.

Municipal Judge Richard W. (Dusty) Rhodes installed the officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce and Assemblyman George Milias acted as master-of-ceremonies at the dinner.

Dick Hardy was installed as president; Gene Kelley, vice-president and Oltmann, treasurer. In a simple but impressive ceremony Judge Rhodes administered the oath of office to the six carry-over directors (Hardy, Oltmann, Elton

Councilman Rogers asks appeal on store sign

In an unprecedented action, Councilman Ed Rogers on Monday night appealed a ruling of the Planning Commission which granted approval of two huge signs on the old Clark's Drug building into which American Auto Supply plans to move shortly.

The ruling of the Planning Commission, which was made after a lengthy discussion on the matter in two meetings, approved two signs, each 8-feet x 66-feet. One sign would be on Harrison side and the other on Campbell Ave.

The approval of the commission would have been final if no appeal had been filed within 10 days. Eight days had elapsed when Rogers, acting as a private citizen in the matter, filed his appeal. Any interested citizen has the right to appeal a ruling of the Planning Commission, City Attorney pointed out.

Ad Art of San Jose, through its representative, Larry Rearic, the sign company involved, maintained that the huge signs would

"IMPROVING ONE'S IMAGE" has become a greatly over-worked term in recent years.

The term probably originated in some big advertising agency on Madison Ave. in pushing some slow-selling product.

But it has now been taken over by any organization, business or individual that wants to get a better public acceptance.

As much as we prefer to avoid the use of trite descriptive phrases, we must admit that "improving image" does a pretty neat job in covering a number of situations.

For example, recently the expression has been used quite frequently in discussions about Campbell's present and future.

CAMPBELL'S "IMAGE was in the limelight at the highly successful annual installation dinner of the Chamber of Commerce last week.

Admittedly a chamber of commerce affair must be geared to an optimistic note. The future must be painted with a rosy glow, even if there are some obvious dull hues mixed in.

(We can't recall a single c of c doings to which we have been exposed when pessimism was the keynote.)

Campbell's image for the future stood out impressively at the C of C affair at the Villa Felice. That the dinner-dance was rated almost unanimously as the best in the chamber's history is great from a purely social point of view. But far more important in our book was the enthusiastic acceptance of the basic premise that the Chamber of Commerce was moving ahead in a joint effort with the city administration in the building of a better community.

"Partners in progress" was the way this cooperative action was described.

THIS "SPIRIT OF '66", this new enthusiastic approach by the C of C to the job at hand and ahead, is not the doing of any one person. It is a team effort. And that is the way it should be.

Yet, as BILL OLTMANN, winner of the "ambassador of the year award", said when he was presented with the trophy at the dinner, it was difficult not to be enthusiastic with a guy like JIM DUFFIELD, the C of C manager, around. Jim's enthusiasm, Bill explained, sort of rubs off on those around him. And we agree.

The installation dinner was smoothly handled from start to finish with DICK HARDY, C of C prexy in the driver's seat.

Assemblyman George Milias did a top-notch job of emceeing the affair and especially impressive was the installation ceremony conducted by Judge Richard W. (Dusty) Rhodes.

But it was JOHN

Traffic signal report

Because of the interest of the community in better traffic control through the installation of traffic signals in critical intersections in town, The Press feels that the following report submitted to the City Council by Bill Wren, acting director of public works, should be of value to all citizens. Of especial interest, of course, is the situation at Winchester and Rincon. That is why we are presenting it in its entirety.

SUBJECT: Rincon-Winchester signals

As a result of the City Council's direction at their meeting on Dec. 13, 1965, my office has undertaken to determine the magnitude of traffic conflicts at various intersections in the City as compared to that existing at the Winchester-Rincon location.

The following intersections were chosen for this comparison: All of those intersections on Campbell Ave. between Fourth St. and Railway Ave. as well as the intersection of Hamilton and Almarida avenues. Time did not allow us to include any more than the above listed locations.

The accepted criteria for signal warrants was applied in each case, the same as had previously been applied to Winchester-Rincon. It was determined that in only one case--that of Campbell and Central avenues--was the warrant satisfied and there only marginally. You are aware, of course, that the latter location is presently controlled by a pre-timed signal system. This installation was originally justified--even though the warrant was marginal--on the basis that North Central Ave. could act as a feeder to Campbell Ave. for all of the north-of-Campbell area and that traffic from this area desiring to proceed easterly on Campbell Ave. could avail itself of the signal by way of Grant Ave. Such is not the case on Rincon Ave. since it is not connected with a pattern of streets and therefore cannot be classified as an equivalent "feeder."

The order of severity of conflicts among the intersections studied is as follows, on the basis of the data collected:

1. Campbell-Central
2. Campbell-Harrison
3. Campbell-Third
4. Campbell-Second
5. Winchester-Rincon
6. Hamilton-Almarida
7. Campbell-Railway
8. Campbell-First
9. Campbell-Fourth

The last five are so alike as to be interchangeable on the above list. The first four are, however, readily deserving of their respective positions.

It is emphasized that this list does not infer that traffic signals should be installed in the order shown. It merely indicates the relative magnitude of cross-traffic conflict among the comparison intersections. It is reiterated that none of the presently uncontrolled locations deserve "isolated" signal installations.

The delay which is currently being experienced by minor street traffic was observed at least sufficiently enough to state that average delays in excess of those at Rincon Ave. are prevalent at other locations. Harrison-Campbell, for example, shows more average delay time during the peak traffic periods.

You will recall that I previously reported an average observed delay of 30 seconds at Winchester-Rincon during peak hour and stated that a "built-in" delay of something approaching 60 seconds would probably result from a progressive signal installation. We have carried that a bit farther now by observing these delays during off-peak periods. We find that during the bulk of the day, maneuvers ranging from a rolling stop (zero delay) to a 20-second wait are prevalent, with the observed average being some nine seconds. It can be stated factually that, again, a "built-in" wait of some 45 seconds would result from the signal during these same "off-peak" periods. This point alone, it seems, should be considered very seriously.

It is recalled that my original recommendation concerning the Winchester-Rincon matter pointed out that it did not deserve individual treatment at this time but should well be considered in the future as a part of an entire interconnected system. The additional data included herein indicates that Winchester-Rincon certainly does not stand out as a noticeable problem area when compared with many other existing situations.

We are all aware of the congestion on Campbell Avenue created primarily by the Central Avenue signal during periods of heavy demand. This is precisely the thing we must guard against insofar as installing additional systems without proper planning and discretion.

A comprehensive study and evaluation is of paramount importance in the approach to any solutions of this sort. If Winchester Boulevard is to eventually be entirely signalized; if Campbell Avenue in the downtown area is to eventually receive the same treatment; and if our existing pre-timed systems are to be eventually up-dated in a manner such as was presented in the last budget, a total capital-outlay of, possibly, $70,000 is involved. This does not include the consequent maintenance expense, which is sizeable. Nor does it include any subsequent installations which may become justified. In order to get our money's worth and to be assured that our design is the most adequate, efficient, and functional that is available, we must attack the entire problem comprehensively and in proper order.

On this basis and in consideration of the evidence which has been presented, it is firmly recommended that this matter be deferred for future budget considerations.

Respectfully submitted,
William G. Wren,
Acting Director of Public Works

JOHN, co-owner of the Campbell Memorial Chapel and also a funeral home in Los Gatos, brought down the house with his drollness and his humorous implied references to his profession.

His bit about the "lengthening shadows" was especially effective.

Bill Oltmann told us later in the evening that he was so surprised with the winning of the award that he hardly could think of anything clever to say at the time.

The lanky accountant said he thought of some dillies after he sat down to go with John's "lengthening shadows". But it was too late then.

Although Bill was surprised, his wife was informed ahead of time to assure Bill's presence at the dinner. This is an accountant's busy season, as all of us know, and extra hours are the rule rather than exception.

CAMPBELL'S FIRE DEPARTMENT, as most of you know by now, has won the highest award in the nation in competition with large and small departments from coast to coast. In winning, Campbell beat out such big boys as Baltimore, Philadelphia and Chicago, to name a few.

We add our heartiest congratulations to the hundreds already received by Fire Chief George Maxwell and his gang. It couldn't have happened to a greater bunch.

The timing of the award was especially effective.

The announcement was made in time for The Press to spread it in last week's huge "progress edition".

It was also just in time for the installation dinner of the C of C at which Chief George and Fire Marshal Gene Borden were recognized for this tremendous achievement and the honor the department had brought to the community.

That's what we call real progress.

It is, as we pointed out before, a little difficult to keep from waxing overly-enthusiastic about the whole ball of wax that makes up our community.

So we will end on that rather pleasant note.

on the Winchester-Rincon problem, was presented prior to the discussion by Bill Wren, acting city engineer. (The report in its entirety is published on page 2 of this issue.)

$20,000 COST

In his report he maintained that no traffic signal should be placed at Winchester-Rincon until all the side streets onto Winchester between Campbell and Budd had synchronized signals. He estimated it would cost $20,000 to put in the four signals (Rincon; Alice-Cherry Lane; Catalpa Lane-Sunnyside; El Caminito-Kennedy).

Wren also emphasized in his report that the criteria applied in the signal priority derby indicated that Winchester-Rincon was not as critical as other intersections in the city. Winchester-Rincon ranked fifth in the list. To install all the neeeded signals in town he estimated would cost $70,000.

In addition to interested residents present in the audience, City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan read seven letters that had been received requesting the Winchester-Rincon signalization.

FROM THE FLOOR

Leading the oral onslaught from the floor were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Regas who maintained a person was "taking his life in his hands now in trying to cross Winchester."

Regas also said that he had contacted the San Jose traffic department to see what criteria was used there for signals. He said that based on the information he received a traffic signal was warranted at Winchester-Rincon.

Others speaking from the audience in favor of signals included Mrs. Charles De LaRoche, of Winchester Hardware. She explained that they had a bad time on two counts. They lived in Catalpa Lane and their store was at Winchester and Rincon.

H. E. Button, of Button's Studio, also emphasized the trouble pedestrians had in crossing the street.

DOETSCH'S POINT

Councilman Ralph Doetsch led the battle for the signals from the council bench. Doetsch emphasized that it was not the traffic count that was the critical point in the situation.

He said the continuous flow of traffic on Winchester, which would get worse when Budd was signalized, was what worked a hardship on those trying to get onto Winchester from the side streets.

Doetsch wondered how it would be possible to get across Winchester if the Budd signal was not synchronized. Wren answered that it would depend a great deal on how that signal worked.

Councilman Bill Smeed said that he favored putting the money in the budget next year because he felt it was his fault in overlooking the fact that the signalization item last year had been removed when the final budget was adopted. Funds for the traffic signal had been in the preliminary budget but had to be cut out in the final weeks.

Councilman Homer Hyde offered the comment that it seemed that Wren's report showed that there were many bad intersections and he added that he faced a traffic-trying situation each day going from Alice Ave. to his office on W. Campbell. He thought that Campbell Ave. was a bad bottleneck also. It seemed, he added, that it was just a case of too little money to do all the necessary jobs.

Councilman Ed Rogers agreed that the $20,000 should be earmarked for the synchronization of signals on Winchester for next year but he emphasized that he was keeping an open mind. "I would not hesitate to put the money elsewhere," he said, "if the situation warranted it."

On that note, the council indicated to City Manager Bob Stephens to "earmark" $20,000 in the capital improvement budget.

The action by the council met with the approval of most of the audience. So the crowd went home happy--or reasonably so.

An Advanced Planning Committee is now in the process of choosing a Planning Consultant to work with the City under a Federal 701 Grant to establish the orderly and best ultimate development of our City.

The Finance Committee is working with the staff in preparing a five year Capital Improvements budget from which the City will develop a sound financing program. City Manager Bob Stephens is working closely in coordinating all these activities and provides the management necessary to apply City policies.

that the time has come when the taxpayers of Campbell would support a capital improvement bond to accomplish a number of important projects.

Those of top priority are:

a. Street improvements with emphasis on Campbell Avenue from Winchester Blvd. to Bascom Avenue; the San Tomas area; completion of Winchester Blvd; and our minor streets throughout the city.
b. Definite and clear-cut plans for a Civic Center and a program to revitalize the downtown core area.
c. A "master plan" for future park areas and beautification projects to be submitted to the electorate. Concentrate on the beautification of the Los Gatos Creek area between Camden and Campbell avenues.

Incidentally, I believe this could be gotten underway immediately and perhaps be accomplished economically by working with the original group comprised of the local organizations and clubs, who expressed their eagerness to work with the City and County officials to eliminate this situation that has been such an unsightly eyesore to our City.

I am available at all times for either complaints or requests--feel free to phone or contact me at any time.

Buckminster Fuller to be first SJS scholar-in-residence

Inventor, engineer, architect, poet, mathematician, author--versitile R. Buckminster Fuller will begin a two-month engagement as first Scholar-in-Residence at San Jose State College on Feb. 9.

An extension of the Visiting Scholar program instituted by the Associated Student Body three years ago, the new program is designed to bring great thinkers of the day in close proximity with students.

Dr. Fuller's visit is jointly sponsored by the A. S. B. and various departments and programs of the college. Plans for the two-month stay are coordinated by an A. S. B. student committee and faculty members.

To serve as a central campus location for students and Dr. Fuller, a 39-foot diameter geodesic dome has been erected on Seventh Street in the middle of the campus by Price-Rutzebeck Co. of Hayward. The dome, engineered by Dr. Fuller, will house ongoing exhibits, lecture space for 45 students and a lounge area for informal discussions.

In addition, a special workshop class will be in session one afternoon a week for seven weeks to give students a formal classroom opportunity to study under Dr. Fuller. The workshop with Fuller is also open on a limited basis to extension students.

Dr. Fuller will deliver several public lectures open to the community during his stay at SJSC. He has also been engaged as a consultant by the city of San Jose on redevelopment problems.

A dropout of Harvard University, Dr. Fuller has compiled an extensive list of achievements including nine honorary doctor's degrees.

Fluoridation may get vote

Voters within the Campbell city limits may have an opportunity to indicate their feelings on the controversial question of the fluoridation of water in the city council election on April 12.

The City Council Monday directed the city staff to prepare the necessary papers by the next meeting, Feb. 14, ready for council action then. City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan reported that Feb. 18 was the deadline for copy for the ballots.

Council members emphasized that the council was taking no stand on the matter but that the issue was being presented to satisfy any question that the Public Utilities Commission, now holding a hearing on floridation for San Jose, might direct to the city as the citizens desire.

In other actions, the council:

--DEFERRED action on the two appeals from Planning Commission rulings specifying fire hydrants be installed as part of the conditions of approval for buildings of Cal Falcon, off Dell Ave. and Dr. Carl Jacobsen, operator of an animal hospital. Fire Chief George Maxwell and City Manager Bob Stephens were directed to see if a more equitable means of charging for the hydrant could be worked out.

--AWARDED the bid for the bonds for the improvement district on Hamilton Ave. to Walston & Co. which was the best of five bids submitted. Walston offered 4.27% interest.

--OFFICIALLY recognized by resolution the recent award given the Fire Department as being tops in the nation.

--APPROVED the assignment of a pool car to the building department when the Police Department's vehicle is available. City Manager Bob Stephens said the assignment would result in considerable savings.

--APPOINTED R. W. Curry, plumbing contractor, of 106 N. 3rd St., to the Board of Building Appeals.

Oltmann received the award for his efforts in gaining membership in the revitalized C. of C.

Rogers in his request for the matter to come before the council on appeal maintained that the matter should be studied by the council because the signs would have an impact on the entire architectural aspect of the downtown area.

Those favoring the signs claimed that the building would be altered for the better by their design. The signs would extend only one foot from the building and the rustic canopy now on the structure would be removed. The original application called for the sign to extend four feet.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN YOUNGMARK of Minneapolis, Minn. have been the houseguests of their daughter and son-in-law, MR. AND MRS. ROY JUEAL of Shadybrook Lane. While here they helped to celebrate granddaughter Stacy's third birthday, young Wayne Jueal's on Jan. 23 and Mrs. Youngmark's on Jan. 16. They expect to return home around the first of February..

THE ANNUAL Installation Dinner of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce at Villa Felice last Thursday night was one of the gayest, most fashionable affairs the Chamber of Commerce has ever produced. A salute is in order to the Secretary-Manager JAMES DUFFIELD, who did such an excellent job!

FOR THE LADIES I took a few notes! MRS. GEORGE MILIAS (whose Assemblyman husband was Master of Ceremonies) was attired in a chic kelly green wool outfit. Incidentally it was pointed out that Mrs. Milias is a descendent of an old Campbell family. Her great grandfather, GEORGE S. RODEK, was a resident of Campbell and the family home is now Campbell Memorial Chapel. She is also a graduate of Campbell High School. . .

MRS. RICHARD RHODES, wife of the JUDGE OF THE CAMPBELL-LOS GATOS-SARATOGA MUNICIPAL COURT, was lovely in a sleeveless floral print. MRS. DICK HARDY, an attractive brunette, chose a black sheath with which she wore a gardenia corsage. MRS. JACK PAYNE, who is auburn-haired, was especially smart in a muted pink satin suit with crystal earrings and necklace. MRS. BILL BROWN chose a black slim skirt with a white sequined top. Her blond hair was piled high in a sophisticated twist...

Karen Nelson is January's loveliest bride

MR. AND MRS. RONALD E. HOGAN
(KAREN NELSON)

Karen Marjorie Nelson joined the roster of 1966 brides when she repeated marriage vows with Ronald E. Hogan earlier this month at the First Methodist Church of Campbell. The attractive bride chose a white brocade gown styled with a portrait neckline, long tapered sleeves and a chapel length train. A Princess crown of pearls and auroras secured her silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white carnations with satin ribbons.

Five bridal attendants preceeded Karen down the aisle. They were Lynn Rhodes of Anderson, Calif., who served as maid of honor; Debra Nelson, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid; and Mesdames Richard Hogan, Leon Huntting and Arthur Dandurand, bridesmaids. Their lovely gowns of moss green accented with sky blue nylon ruffles at the elbow length sleeves were designed and made by the bride. They wore headpieces of sky blue roses attached to moss green net, and long white gloves.

James C. Rooseveare of San Jose stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Terry Merlo, Steve Shepherd, Ronald Nelson, and Gregory Baker.

A church reception was held following the ceremony for 350 guests. A four-tiered wedding cake was the center of the bride's table. Later a buffet dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian C. Nelson of 830 Monica Lane.

The young couple left for a wedding trip to Pacific Grove and Carmel and are now at home in Milpitas.

Karen attended Campbell High School, Louise Sallinger Fashion Design in San Francisco and the John Robert Powers Modeling School. She is now employed at Fairchild in Mountain View.

Ronald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Hogan of Reno, Nevada. He is a graduate of James Lick High School and attended Sierra College. He also served in the U.S. Navy. He was employed at the First National Bank of Nevada and is now relocating in San Jose.

BLACKFORD BEAT

BY DIANE GIPSON CAROL COOK

The Spring Student Council elections will soon be held and those in the running are Janne Brand, Mike Kellick, Rich Manfre, Lynn McConahey, Ellen Roemmele and Selene Seltzer. All are Juniors.

The two candidates for Student Body President are Sue Pisano and Benson Kenemoto. Both are Seniors.

All the candidates for both Student Council and Student Body President gave their speeches on Monday, Jan. 17, before the entire Blackford student body.

Also for the new spring semester, the Student Council will choose new student managers for each class and new commissioners.

Try-outs for after school girl's sports were held on Monday, Jan. 7. Only 30 girls out of the many that tried out made it.

In the sports field, Blackford's Frosh-Soph basketball team lost to Del Mar by a slim margin of 38-34 last Tuesday, Jan. 18. But the Varsity team trampled the Dons by a score of 70-59. This victory for the Braves put Blackford in the number one position in the West Valley Athletic League.

Friday, Jan. 21, the put Blackford in the Brave Varsity team smashed Saratoga by a score of 78-32. Dennis Awtrey, Blackford's 6' 9" center, broke the Central Coast scoring record with 47 points. He also set a record for the Bay Area with his ninth 30 point plus game.

Blackford's championship tennis team held its first meeting of the year last week.

Next Saturday, Jan. 29, a group of students will go up to San Francisco to see "The Agony and the Ecstasy," the story of Michelangelo.

GRANGE BREAKFAST

The public is invited to attend.

BUC BANTER

BY MARY KNOWLES

By Mary Knowles

First off, I'd like to apologize to Gwen Davis and Curt Durick whose names were accidentally left out of last weeks cast lists for this year's musical CAMELOT.

Gwen is playing Lady Guinevere, the female lead, with Walt Ritter, Mark Ebner, and Don Russell in leading male roles. Also in leading roles are Wes Clark as Merlyn the magician, and Linda Fouts as Morgan LeFay the

Not only are there a large portion of students working on the production, there are also a few graduates who deserve a lot of credit for their hard work.

First, there is Mrs. Dina Ferentinos (Hubbell), who has done the choreography for the musicals the last three years, and secondly, Robynn O'Hara, who designed the costumes for OKLAHOMA and now for CAMELOT.

In costuming the cast of CAMELOT, many formals are needed. Anyone having old formals or fur pieces that can be made over for use in the musical is urged to contact the school.

Also welcome would be women willing to help make these costumes. There are several women and students now meeting at the school each Wednesday for a sewing session. At the end of each session they go home and sew until the next week when they go back to school again.

Also for CAMELOT, as in previous years, the boys participating in the musical are allowed to have their hair grow (a quite unusual privilege).

Another pride and joy of Campbell High is her Speech and Debate team. On Saturday, Jan. 15, a speech tournament was held at Campbell.

Events started at 8 a.m. and the final debate ended at 6 that evening. Debates in the A division spoke at Campbell while B speakers competed at Los Gatos High School.

Doing a great job for Campbell were Angel Grindon and Wes Clark who teamed up to capture the first place title in the B division.

The high point in the tourney came when it was announced that Campbell and Fremont High Schools had tied to win the Sweepstakes trophy.

Since Campbell sponsored the tournament, Fremont will receive the trophy, and Campbell will receive a duplicate as soon as possible.

Marilyn Johnson has been named Campbell High's Future Homemaker of America. She earned this title after taking the Future Homemaker test last month and being the highest scorer in the school.

In the not too distant future Marilyn will be competing against other Future Homemakers in the area and possibly be entered in state and national finals with a college scholarship as the prize of the national contest.

Pops concert at Blackford

The Blackford High School Music Department presents its Annual "Pops" Concert on Saturday, Jan. 29, at 8p.m. in the Blackford cafetorium. Admission will be $1 for adults, 50¢ for students, and children under 12--Free. Featured performing groups include the Orchestra, Cnoir, Symphonic Band, and Dance Band.

The program for the evening includes "Ballet Parisien", the madrigal "My Bonnie Lass", a two piano arrangement of Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody #2", "A Trumpeter's Lullaby" featuring Mark Butler, and "Dance Toccata".

Highlighting the evening will be the Blackford Dance Band doing such selections as "Coral Reef", "Bluer than Blue", and "Jet Out of Town".

BITTER FRUIT

The Indians' name for cranberries was a word meaning "bitter fruit".

Ted Regas, Jim Baker head area YMCA membership drive

Two Campbell men have been chosen division chairmen in the 1966 membership roundup of the YMCA.

T.J. (Ted) Regas, manager of the Campbell Branch of the Bank of America, and Atty. James B. Baker, who maintains offices at 201 E. Campbell Ave., each will head up a team of "cowhands" from the Southwest Branch of the Metropolitan YMCA.

Aim of the teams will be to get 300 "brands"--new or renewal "Y" memberships--in the Southwest Branch. The goal is part of the overall figure of 3,050 for the Metro "Y".

Regas and Baker were appointed by Donald E. Callahan, CPA, who is membership drive chairman for the branch. Overall drive chairman is Ronald R. James, vice-mayor of San Jose.

The Southwest Branch will launch its phase of the roundup with a chuck wagon breakfast at 7:30a.m. Feb. 3 in the First Methodist Church of Campbell.

In addition to Campbell, the Southwest Branch serves the communities of Los Gatos, Monte Sereno, Saratoga, Cambrian Park, Morgan Hill and Gilroy.

YMCA CAMPAIGNERS--T.J. (Ted) Regas, left, and Atty. James S. Baker have been appointed division chairman for the Southwest Branch, Metropolitan YMCA, in the forthcoming membership roundup. They and their co-workers will be seeking 300 "brands", new or renewal "Y" memberships.

The membership roundup is held every year to sustain and expand the "Y's" varied program that has activities for residents of all ages, with particular emphasis on youth.

There are two other division chairmen for the Central Branch, Army Capt. Robert P. Glasson of Cambrian Park and Richard F. Irion of Saratoga.

West Valley College names community services chief

A 39 year old instructor in history and political science has been appointed the first Coordinator of Community Services by the West Valley College Board of Trustees. The board also appointed a full-time instructor-coordinator of its police science program.

William H. Deal, of 1827 Frobisher Way, San Jose, will assume duties Feb. 1 as Coordinator of Community Services and instructor, on a part-time basis during the remainder of this academic year. In the former post he will coordinate the college's community services program, prepare its budget, compile the college's master calendar, and plan all publicity and promotion of the program.

Deal has received both the bachelor's and has nearly completed the work for the Master's degree at San Jose State College. He has extensive experience in organization of public events, according to President Wallace W. Hall. He has been active in political campaigns and served as vice chairman of the Santa Clara County Democratic Central Committee from 1960 to 1964.

New Coordinator-Instructor in the Police Science Program is Roy Kenneth McPhail, 53, 1923 James Town Dr., San Jose. He hold's the bachelor's degree from the University of California at Berkeley, the LLB degree from Columbia Law School.

He is a former chief of police of the city of Hollister and presently is on retirement status from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with which agency he served in clerical and special agent capacities from 1935 through 1945, and as a special agent in investigative, supervisory and administrative work during 1949 to 1964.

New college needs name

What's in a name?

Apparently the West Valley College Board of Trustees feels that there is a great deal.

At a regular board meeting Thursday night, at the suggestion of Trustee Edward A. Panelli they asked anyone and everyone to aid them in naming the college they intend to build just north of the Bayshore Freeway and between Lawrence Expressway and Coffin Road.

Anyone who has a name to suggest is asked to make that suggestion in writing and send it to Dr. Wallace W. Hall, secretary of the board, West Valley College, 51 E. Campbell Ave., Campbell.

Teachers to hear Mental Health chief

Dr. Thomas H. Llewellyn, Program Chief of Mental Health Services of the Santa Clara County Health Department, will speak to the teachers of the Campbell Elementary Teachers' Association at their next meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 26 in the Campbell Elementary School at four o'clock.

Dr. Llewellyn has spent the past six years with the Health Department and as Director of Psychiatry at the Santa Clara County Hospital and has participated in the organization of these services. He will speak on the facilities available in the County and some of the future plans.

Russian classes at Del Mar High

Beginning and intermediate classes in Russian are being conducted at Del Mar Adult Center, Room 25, on Tuesday and Thursday from 7 until 10 p.m. Persons interested in Russian language fluency, translation or travel are invited to join the Spring Semester classes which will start on Feb. 1.

The Campbell Adult School adopted a method for rapid and comprehensive learning of the Russian language, especially designed for adults, in 1962. This method, under the direction of Ted Cimos, formerly Russian language commentator on Radio Free Europe, consists of essential material necessary to develop a fluency in speech and capability of translating the Russian text.

In the last three years a great many adult students attended the classes and the majority have attained a desired fluency in speech and translations. Additional information is available at the Campbell Adult School Office, 1945 Winchester Blvd., phone 379-4710.

In 1650 A.D., the world's population was about 545 million.

Among the many course offerings of the Campbell Adult School is that of photography, meeting Tuesday evenings at the Westmont Center, 7 p.m. beginning Feb. 1.

In addition to the technical aspects of cameras and films, both color and black and white, elements of good picture composition are emphasized. Field trips, critique discussions and demonstrations are part of the class structure.

The instructor is Susie Freeman, a fine arts and photography graduate of the University of Michigan. She has worked professionally in a series of commercial newspaper ads, a juvenile book format, and general art photography, and is highly regarded as an innovator and photographer.

The spring semester classes begin the week of Jan. 31 and brochures listing the many courses may be obtained by calling 379-4710 or by visiting our Adult Centers.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

President Johnson's recommendation in his State of the Union message of four-year terms for House Members provoked cheers of approval for obvious reasons. The security of a four-year term instead of two, naturally appealed to the men and women who must spend long hours at expensive campaigning almost without letup under the present system.

present system.

But the proposal is so serious that it should be closely examined with much more than the convenience of a Congressman in mind.

The framers of our Constitution who deliberated in Philadelphia made a basic decision that balanced representation required one house attuned to area concepts and a lower house attuned directly to individual people and their needs.

So Senators were chosen for six-year terms and House Members for two. James Madison argued for a three-year House term saying that one year would be "almost consumed in preparing for and traveling to and from the seat of national business."

But the Constitutional Convention agreed upon a two-year compromise term. In the "FEDERALIST," Alexander Hamilton defended the decision by saying "(the House) should have an immediate dependence on, and intimate sympathy with, the people. Frequent elections are unquestionably the only policy by which this . . . can be effectually secured."

Though the four-year term is tempting to me personally, I have real reservations.

It now takes me four and one-half hours to come to Washington from California where it used to take a Georgia representative more than a month. Thus, transporation has solved one of Madison's concerns.

I would be unalterably opposed to electing all 435 Members of the House in a Presidential election year. One need go further into history than the 1964 elections to see that the popularity (or lack of it) in a Presidential candidate has an avalanche effect upon Congressional elections.

Since Congress is supposed to be one of the three independent arms of our government, it should not be so completely influenced by the Presidential candidate. Traditionally the American people have exerted a check and a balance against Presidential policies in off-year Congressional elections. To remove this check is to take one step closer to executive domination of national policy.

Speaking from personal experience, I know there is no substitute for remaining close to people like the dawn-until-late-night demands of a reelection campaign, the personal conversation on the sidewalk, and rubbing elbows with John Q. Public at meetings and local functions.

Without this intimate contact, it would be easy to interpret the views of busy and active pressure groups as majority thinking. The great majority of Americans are neither ultra-liberal nor reactionary. But it is this same great majority which doesn't take the time from its work-a-day world to write letters to Congressmen.

This proposal for longer terms could disrupt our traditional system of checks and balances. As Hamilton said, the House should have "an immediate dependence on, and an intimate sympathy with, the people."

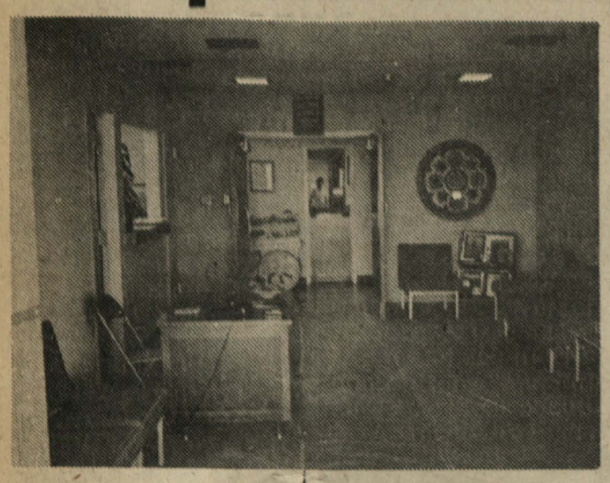
Campbell Community Hospital celebrates third anniversary



HOSPITAL LOBBY--This is Campbell Hospital's lobby where visitors may sit comfortably in upholstered chairs. Reading material and candy are provided from the gayly decorated cart which is one of the projects of the Campbell Hospital Auxiliary.

Hospital Auxiliary provides "extra's"

The Campbell Hospital Auxiliary was organized in 1964 to augment the services provided by the hospital staff. The women who make up the membership of the auxiliary have dedicated themselves to provide the "little extras" that the nurses and staff cannot provide, such as the "Auxiliary Cart," which is a gayly decorated cart filled with pocket books, magazines, candy and gifts that can be purchased for or by the patients. They also entertain the youngsters in the pediatrics ward.

One of their major services is the information booth set up in the main lobby of the hospital. There they direct visitors to the correct ward, and maintain an up-to-date card file on the patients. Some others work filing X-rays, delivering and arranging flowers, comforting and talking to patients. They provide conversation when a patient wants to talk, change water, make a phone call. All of these extras make Campbell Hospital a better place to stay.

Mrs. William Smeed is president of the Auxiliary. Other officers are Mrs. Victor Thoman, vice-president and Mrs. Eric Schramm, secretary.

New mothers have choice of colors

Visitors won't have to ask the question "Was it a boy or a girl?" when they pay a call on new mothers at Campbell Community Hospital in the future. One of the latest innovations is the pink and blue gowns provided for maternity patients.

Last Christmas nurses wrapped the new babies in bright red Christmas socks before they handed them over to the new parents.

Easter is coming next--what can we expect?

Ultimate expansion calls for 120 beds

Three years of service to the residents of the West Valley area will be marked by the Campbell Community Hospital this week, as it observes its third anniversary. The hospital at 1650 Winchester Blvd., opened its doors to the public on Jan. 21, 1963, after five years of effort by Dr. Robert Wade. The privately owned hospital came about after a proposal to establish a public hospital district was turned down by the voters in 1958.

Campbell Hospital now has 48 beds, three operating rooms, a post anesthetic recovery room, a fully equipped laboratory, a radiology department, an intensive care unit and an emergency room. Oxygen is piped to every ward and all facilities for maternity, surgical, emergency and general medical care are available.

The modern 20,000 sq. ft. building is situated on two and a half acres on Winchester Blvd. near Hamilton Ave. There are 309 physicians on its staff and 127 employees, with a payroll of $500,000 a year.

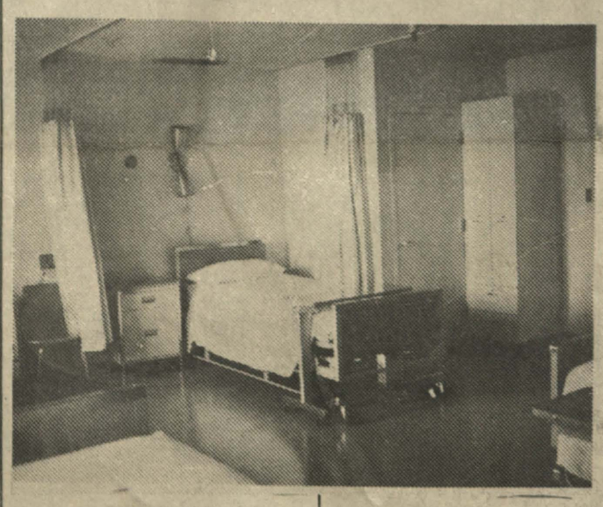
Mrs. Helen White is Director of Nurses and Bernard J. Axelrad, M.D., an internist practicing in Campbell, is president of the Medical Staff. According to Elton E. Admire, administrator for Campbell Community Hospital, the future looks bright for the local hospital, with plans for additional expansion. The ultimate will be 120 beds.

Officers of the Medical Staff for the hospital include George H. Fish, M.D., president-elect; Harold N. Schell, secretary-treasurer. Department heads are Russel L. Hulme, obstetrics and gynecology; Michael D. Stein, pediatrics; Sylo Munemitsu, surgery; Councilors at large: Robert Wade, M.D., Paul A. Werthmann, M.D., and H. Lloyd Alexander, M.D.

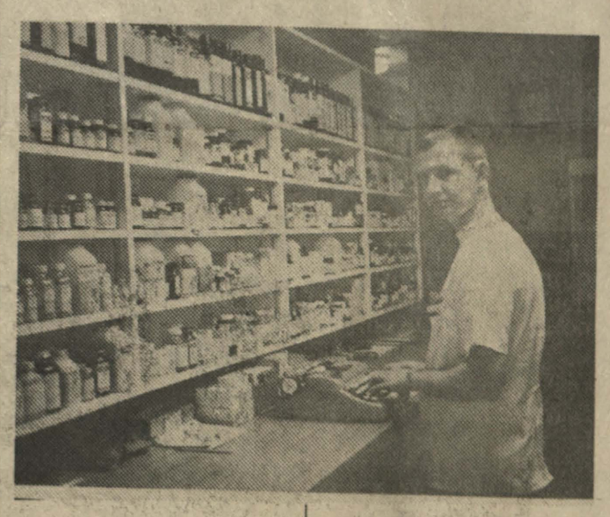
Much of the credit for the successful conduct of the hospital is due to Elton Admire, the administrator, who supervises closely every aspect of the hospital's operation. He also handles all the hospital's public relations. A retired Army officer, experienced in hospital services, Admire has taken an active part in Campbell's community projects and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

A salute to Campbell Community Hospital on its third birthday.

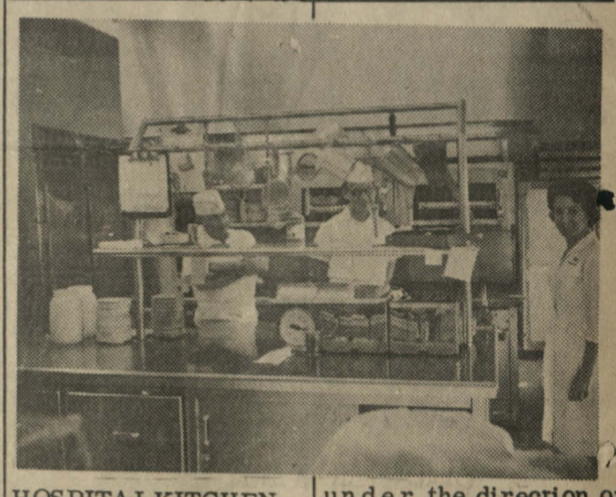
AT HOSPITAL AUXILIARY CONVENTION--Mrs. William Smeed (right), president of the Campbell Hospital Auxiliary, Mrs. James Pluth and Mrs. Anthony Jurras, were among the members attending the California Hospital Association, Auxiliary Division, convention held in Sacramento last September.



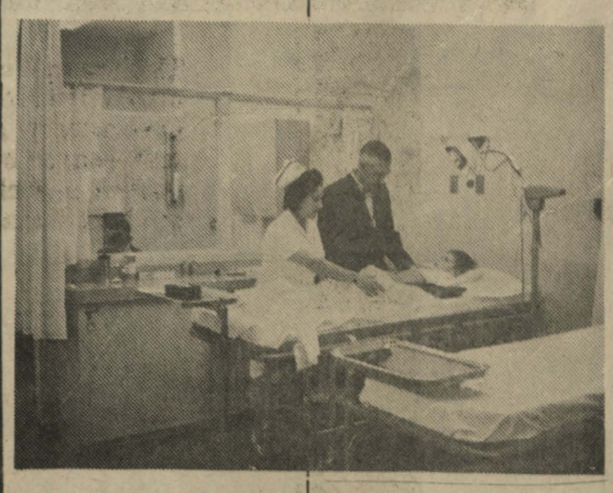
A TYPICAL ROOM--Patients at Campbell Community Hospital find the rooms cheerful and neat with adequate privacy. Private telephones and radios are available as well as television for those who are well enough to enjoy it.



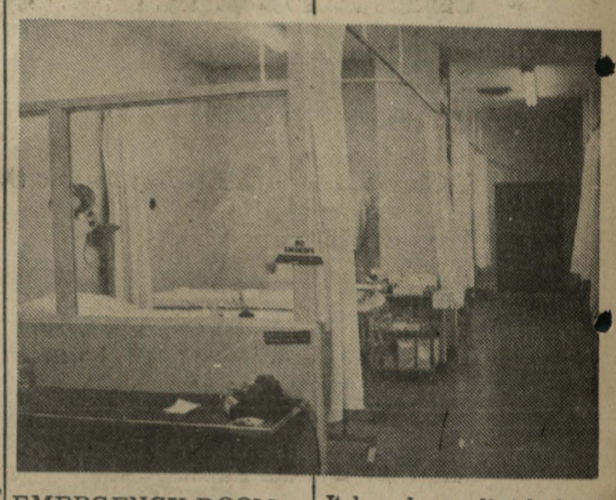
PHARMACY--Richard Buck, Chief Pharmacist, types up a physician's order.



HOSPITAL KITCHEN--The nutritious and flavorful menus for patients of Campbell Community Hospital are prepared in this kitchen, under the direction of Mrs. Angelica Fenolio, Chief Dietician. Cooks are Herbert Reed and John Reiswig.



EMERGENCY PATIENT--A youngster brought into Campbell Hospital's Emergency Room is examined by Dr. William A. Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Yolanda M. Lico, emergency room supervisor.



EMERGENCY ROOM--This expanded emergency room is a new addition to Campbell Community Hospital. It has been divided into four cubicles and can take care of eight or more patients at one time.

Girl scouts

NEIGHBORHOOD 15 Girl Scouts of Cadette Troop 55 were hostesses Saturday for a father-daughter beach trip to Natural Bridges State Park. A preview night featured films about tide pools from San Jose State College.

The films were presented by Biologist Jim St. Germaine, who also accompanied the Cadettes and their dads on the trip. His knowledge of the shore and sea animals made the outing as educational as it was fun. The trip also presented the opportunity to polish up on outdoor cooking skills in preparation for summer camp as the Cadettes cooked their midday meal at the beach.

Attending the event were Cadettes Jeanette Allen, Wendy Willer, Jayne Whitman, Elizabeth Arilb, Mary Ballard, Terrie Boyack, Cynthia Buckley, Tracy Buffington, Debbie Caito, Molly Castro, Barbara Kiser, Barbara Long, Joslynn Meyer, Nancy McIntosh, Lynn Norse, Cathy Petterson, Karen St. Germaine, Lisa St. Germaine, Denise Sanchez and Debbie Underwood.

Assisting the leader, Mrs. Al McIntosh, was Mrs. Jim St. Germaine.

Mrs. Kenneth Buckley, Chairman of Girl Scout Neighborhood 15, reports an increase of approximately 35% in the local Girl Scout program.

Neighborhood 15 encompasses the part of Campbell Union School District which is between Rinconada Golf Course, Winchester Boulevard, Campbell Avenue and Saratoga Road. Registered Scouts, Brownies through Seniors, currently number 683 compared to 450 at the end of last scouting year (June 1965).

Registered adults working with the scouts are 125 compared to 90 last year. These adults serve on the service team, as consultants, organizers, leaders, co-leaders and members of troop committees, and offer an excellent scouting program to our girls age 7 through 17.

More adults are always needed to work with this expanding program, and volunteers may call Mrs. Buckley at 378-2229 or Mrs. Darrell Reed at 379-3315. Training is available.

SOCIAL SECURITY Questions and Answers

SOCIAL SECURITY

Q. What is included in the new program of Medicare?

A. There are two parts. One, hospital insurance, will help pay the costs of hospital care, and the other, medical insurance, will help pay doctor bills and certain other medical expenses.

Q. Who is eligible for these benefits?

A. Almost everyone 65 or older. The people who are not covered are some Civil Service employees, aliens who have not been permanent residents of the United States for at least five years, and people convicted of certain crimes.

Q. How do I sign up for the hospital insurance program?

A. If you receive monthly social security or railroad retirement benefits, you are automatically covered. If you do not receive these benefits, get in touch with your Social Security Office before March 31, 1966.

Q. My husband has worked approximately 20 years as an employee, and social security taxes were deducted during all this time. He is now working for himself. He is 51 years of age and expects to continue working for himself. He is making $5,000 a year gross. When he reaches age 65, will he be able to draw social security payments? I understand that he will continue to pay into the fund on a yearly basis, now that he is self-employed. Is this correct?

A. Yes, your husband will be entitled to monthly payments when he reaches age 65, since the maximum number of years of work required for anyone is 10. He will be entitled to a benefit based on his average earnings, when he reaches 65, or at age 62 in a reduced amount. The amount of earnings to be credited on the account of a self-employed individual is based on the net profit of at least $400 a year, in lieu of his gross profit. Yes, he must continue to pay into the fund on a yearly basis, as a self-employed person. If you desire more information, get in touch with the Social Security Office at 1010 The Alameda, San Jose.

Phone directory hits next week

Telephone customers in Campbell, Saratoga, and San Martin will receive their version of the new San Jose-Santa Clara telephone directory next week, according to G. Lee Sicard, PT & T's local manager.

The books, which contain the same alphabetical listings as the San Jose book, have a localized yellow pages section as well as a different cover.

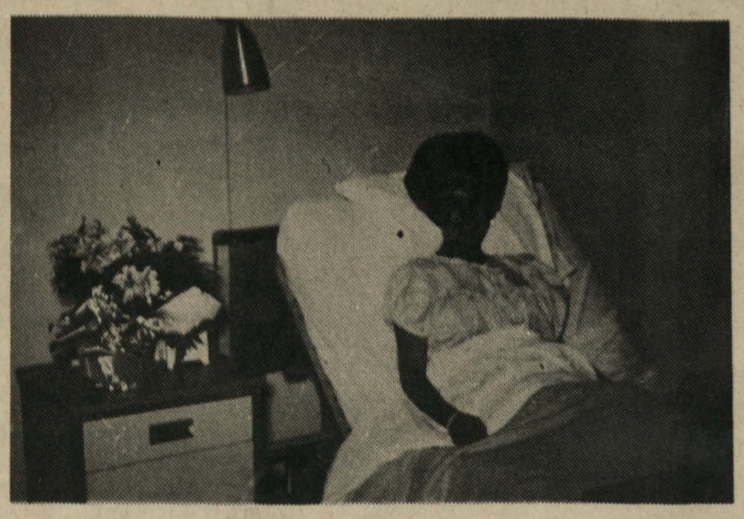
A color photograph of Saratoga Creek is on the cover.

Sicard said 43,500 copies of the directory will be delivered in the communities during next week's initial delivery, an increase of 2,800 over last year.

The book has 174,589 alphabetical listings in its 496 white pages, which is 16 pages more than last year. There are also 16 green index pages, the same as last year, and 240 yellow pages, 16 more than last year.

MEDICAL RECORDS ROOM--Medical records are filed in this room at Campbell Community Hospital. Mrs. Ruth Buffington (seated) is the Medical Records Librarian. Mrs. Alverna Peterson is her assistant.

The Public is Cordially Invited To Visit Our Hospital



Pictured is Mrs. Dana C. Mazzei of 455 Sims Road, Santa Cruz, Calif., a recent maternity patient in the Campbell Community hospital. She was one of the first to wear a new maternity gown initiated by the hospital. In her case the gown was pink as she had a baby girl. Blue gowns signify that the mother had a baby son.

State to screen some junkyards

Authority to proceed with plans to screen junkyards along State highways from public view has been granted to the California Division of Highways by the California Highway Commission.

The consent is in keeping with highway beautification programs sponsored by both State and Federal governments. The Commission approved an initial expenditure of $93,000 that will be used primarily to provide functional planting that will include trees and shrubs.

The Division has already selected some junkyards that will receive the benefit of the landscaping designed to hide them from passing traffic. They are scattered from Humboldt County in the north to San Diego in the south. Others will be selected in the near future.

Mothers' March against birth defects February 1

Doorbells will be ringing throughout the Campbell area next Tuesday, Feb. 1, as hundreds of women call on their neighbors in the annual Mothers' March against birth defects.

This is the twenty-eighth year for the March of Dimes, of which the Mothers' March is a part. Initially, funds were collected to do battle with poliomyelitis. Since the development of Salk and Sabin vaccines under National Foundation-March of Dimes programs, the emphasis has been turned toward birth defects.

Mrs. Stephen Goodman of 1352 Bent Drive is regional chairman which includes Campbell, Los Gatos and Saratoga. The community of Campbell has been broken into two parts, with Mrs. Robert Demster as chairman of one and Mrs. Dale Sipe as chairman of the other. Working as co-chairman with Mrs. Sipe is Mrs. Daniel McNiven.

"All three of the Campbell community chairmen are experienced workers with the National Foundation-March of Dimes," Mrs. Goodman reported. "They are convinced that the cause is a good one and they know enough about the program to stress the educational phases of the Mothers' March."

Dudes and Dolls

A beginners "get acquainted" night will be held by the Dudes and Dolls Square Dancers Club on Thursday, Jan. 27, at 8 p.m. at the recreation hall of the Cambrian Park Methodist Church. Westhills Club

Westhills Service Club will meet Wednesday, Jan. 26 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Arthur Cowdery, 5277 Keene Dr., San Jose, with Mrs. Mark Simmons as co-hostess.
